SATURDAY MORNING, NOV. 12, 1864.

ALL'S WELL THAT ENDS WELL! — Our reports for to-day satisfy every [illegible] mind that the Union candidates have carried every Northern State, save it be New Jersey, and every Southern State whose vote was cast last Tuesday, except perhaps Kentucky, and Kentucky and New Jersey are by no means certain for McClellan. Everywhere the Union gains are large, and the men who have claimed Pennsylvania at the October election for the [illegible], can examine the large Union gains in that noble State, and draw what comfort they can from what they read.

While Lincoln's election would have satisfied us, had it been accomplished by a fair majority, his re-election by the overwhelming manifestations of all prominent loyal States, speaks more fully and decidedly the fate of treason and rebellion, and will more speedily wind it up, than the occupation of Richmond and Charleston, than the defeat of Lee and Hood, should those events be achieved, and the idea still left in the minds of Southern rebels that the Northern mind had to any formidable extent sympathy with their cause, or excuse for their treason.

The Old Flag floats freer for it. The grim veteran stands guard to-day, and will charge the foe to-morrow more like a hero than ever before, for while the people vote with him, he can the more bravely fight for them.

SANTIAM MINES. — From Mr. Masters, of this place, who has just returned from a prospecting tour in the Cascade Mountains, in the vicinity of Quartzville, that the Union and Santiam Companies are prosecuting successfully the work on the White Bull ledge. Each company has commenced a tunnel running in on the ledge, and have found a well-defined vein of quartz six feet wide, on the north side of the mountain, where the Union Company are at work, and the same ledge on the south side, where the Santiam Company are at work, the ledge is six and a half feet wide. On the Union ground it is one-third decomposed, and on the Santiam ground it is one-half decomposed. The prospects are good, and the rock looks well.

Mr. McDonald, the discoverer of the White Bull, who is working on the Santiam Company's tunnel, says that every evening he has been in the habit of filling a pan with the decomposed quartz in the tunnel, and washing it at camp, and invariably gets a good prospect from it in gold—sometimes fifty cents, and sometimes a dollar.

The mill which was sent up from here a few weeks since is at the foot of the mountains, waiting for the road to be completed; and it is not probable that it will be done in time for the mill to get in and be put up this winter. It will very likely be June before the mill commences work. It is rather a pity, the quartz there could not be tested sooner, but by that time the different companies will have a large amount of work done, and the ledges will be thoroughly tested.

HOW THE TAX ON GOLD IS PAYABLE. — In a recent sale in New York, through a broker, of merchandise amounting to $20,000 for gold, it was claimed the tax of one-eighth of one per cent., or $25, could be paid in legal tender treasury notes. The collector insisted on the payment of gold or its equivalent. The decision of the Commissioner of Internal Revenue having been requested he replied that the question to be determined was not upon what basis it should be computed, adding:

If you have sold goods for $20,000, payable in currency or in coin, then this sum is the measure of the value of the goods sold; but if you sold the merchandise, stipulating to receive $20,000 in gold, which is of itself an article of purchase and sale, the value of the gold must first be ascertained. If twenty thousand in gold happens to be worth $40,000 in legal tender currency, the latter sum expresses the amount of goods sold. The tax of $50 being thus ascertained, is payable in treasury legal tender notes.

WALLAMET VALLEY RAILROAD COMPANY. — By a notice published in this day's paper, it will be seen that the incorporators are to meet on Wednesday evening, 16th inst., to perfect their organization, and to authorize books of subscription to be opened for the capital stock of the company. If we are correctly informed, it is the intention to obtain as large a subscription as possible, and if they are moderately large, the survey and preparation for letting the contracts for the grading and measuring of some twenty or more miles is contemplated, at as early a day as the season will permit. We can assure the gentlemen in whose hands, as incorporators, this matter now rests, that no scheme of public improvement more important to our welfare has been presented to the public, and none in which this community takes a livelier interest. We say, gentlemen, open your books of subscription, if you desire the thanks of every intelligent and public spirited citizen.

NEWS FROM SALEM. — The action of men of all parties at Salem yesterday in joining to express a determination to put down all outbreak or rebellion in our midst is what we expected.

The election is over and the partisan should be forgotten, and a union of patriotic sentiment prevail.

WE clip the following items from the Mountaineer:

Umatilla. — Mr. Thomas H. Cann, the express messenger, informs us that Umatilla county gave 52 majority for the Union ticket. In the county, as far as heard from, there is a Democratic majority estimated at 120. Mr. Cann further informs us that he heard reports that Baker County [illegible] Democratic by a large majority, but nothing is known with certainty.

Silver Bricks. — Mr. [illegible] arrived at The Dalles by yesterday's [illegible], bringing with him a number of silver bricks, the aggregate value of which was $5,000. These bricks [illegible] Minear mill, and taken in connection with other bricks from this mill, would [illegible] that the [illegible] mining interests are prosperous in the Owyhee county.

The Circuit Court for Umatilla County, Judge [illegible] presiding, [illegible] November term at Umatilla, on Monday, the [illegible].

Gold Dust [illegible]. — A miner named J. D. [illegible], who came down [illegible] yesterday's boat, had with him $2,800 in gold dust. After leaving the cars, he left his cantinas for a few moments at the California Restaurant, and when he returned his treasure was gone. Suspicion attached to one of the proprietors of the house and a couple of miners, all of whom were arrested, but who of them are the guilty party is yet to be ascertained.

EVERY NORTHERN STATE EXCEPT NEW JERSEY FOR LINCOLN!

GLORIOUS NEWS. — The following news has come to us as the first instalment of the good things coming.

It is as we expected, to be sure. We knew it in advance, but we did not know so certainly as to prevent our hearts from now exulting at the result.

All is well!

The wires are working again, and the operator at Yreka gives us a few items of a general result, as follows:

The following States have given majorities for Lincoln and Johnson:

New York, thirty-five thousand.

Illinois, fifteen thousand.

Pennsylvania is largely for Lincoln.

Indiana, thirty-five thousand.

Ohio has gone for Lincoln.

Iowa, thirty thousand.

Tennessee votes for Lincoln.

Kentucky has gone for McClellan.

LATER.

The following is from our Marysville correspondent:

Every Northern State except New Jersey claimed for Lincoln!

STILL LATER.

NEW YORK, Nov. 9. — Returns show the election to Congress of Darling, over Fernando Wood. Henry J. Raymond was elected for the Sixth District, and Humphrey (Union) from Brooklyn. Taylor (Dem.) was elected for the Fifth District, and Chandler (Dem.) for the Seventh District.

The vote of New York City stands Lincoln 36,442, McClellan 73,727. Returns from 105 towns and two counties give Lincoln 20,704 majority. In 83 towns and cities including Albany, Buffalo, Troy, Schenectady and Utica, and also in three counties McClellan has 16,094 majority.

(The Herald makes the city give 37,500 majority for McClellan, with all the wards in. The Union men claim the State by 20,000. Elmyra Union majority 705; Binghamton 353, Danby 16, Ithaca 150, Corning 243, Union majorities.

SPRINGFIELD, Nov. 9. — The State has gone Union, and will probably have a small Union majority in the Legislature. Democrats lose Congressmen in the Eighth, Thirteenth, and Seventeenth Districts, and probably [illegible] in the Fourth or [illegible] District. The Unionists have elected State Senators in Madison and Sinclair Counties. This insures a Union majority in the State Senate, and a United States Senator in place of Richardson.

SPRINGFIELD, Nov. 9, 3 P. M. — It is now believed that the Unionists have a majority in both branches of the Legislature, and gain three Congressmen.

CHICAGO, Nov. 9. — Returns from Indiana indicate a Union majority of 35,000 in the State. A large Union gain in all parts of the State over the October election.

LATER. — Indianapolis, Ind., gives Lincoln 1,000 majority. Returns thus far received show Lincoln's majority will not be less than 30,000 in the State.

[illegible] county 125 Union majority. Calhoun county 1,000 Union majority. Kalamazoo 1,000 Union. [illegible] 1,000. [illegible] county 150. Kent 200.

DETROIT, Nov. 9. — [illegible]. The Unionists claim the State by 15,000 maj.

LOUISVILLE, Nov. 9. — Partial returns from 28 counties in Kentucky, excluding Jefferson, give Lincoln 240 majority. [illegible] McClellan 847. The [illegible] cities of New Haven, Hartford, [illegible], Waterbury, Norwich and New London give Lincoln [illegible] majority.

Fifty towns in Vermont give Lincoln [illegible], McClellan 4,[illegible]. The Union majority will [illegible] Union majority. In Rhode Island the majority will be about 3,000.

In New Jersey, Essex county gives [illegible] Union majority, a Union gain of over 1,000. The Assembly stands six Union [illegible] Democrats.

[illegible], Nov. 9. — The Unionists carry both branches of the Legislature, and elect [illegible] out of [illegible] Congressmen in Wisconsin. Sixty-six towns and cities, including Milwaukie, [illegible].

Milwaukie gives 2,000 [illegible]. [illegible] re-elected to Congress in the Milwaukie District.

Minnesota will give a Union majority of 5,000, judging from the few returns received.

[illegible], Nov. 9. — The United States Telegraph [illegible] reports that Sherman has destroyed Atlanta [illegible], [illegible] all supplies [illegible], and is now marching for Charleston with fifty thousand troops.

The Florida arrived [illegible] on the night of the ninth September. The United States steamer Massachusetts (Captain Collins) was also lying in the harbor for coal. Captain [illegible] to sink the Florida [illegible], and [illegible] started for her, striking her on the quarter, but without doing much damage. Captain Collins now called on [illegible] to surrender, or he would sink her. The First Lieutenant of the Florida replied that under the circumstances he would surrender. The Florida was towed to sea. Her Captain (Morris) and one-half his crew were ashore. No lives were lost. Twelve officers and fifty-eight of her crew were captured.

VICTORIA, V. I., via Seattle, Nov. 11. — [illegible] Harris was re-elected Mayor of Victoria yesterday, by a handsome majority. The steamship [illegible] sailed for San Francisco yesterday morning, with an average amount of treasure and freight. The races and other sports in the programme for the celebration of the Prince of Wales' birthday were interfered with by rain. No news of interest.

GREAT EXCITEMENT AT SALEM.

Fears of an Outbreak—Arms being taken into the Country—Meeting of Citizens.

SALEM, Nov. 11. — A notice appeared on several bulletin boards in this city yesterday afternoon, signed by J. H. Moore, Mayor, calling a meeting of citizens regardless of political organizations to exchange sentiments in regard to apprehensions entertained throughout the country of an armed outbreak. The appearance of the notice caused considerable excitement, which was somewhat augmented by a report that a number of arms were forwarded from this place to the interior of the State yesterday and various rumors consequent upon such an occasion were soon afloat. That evening pursuant to notice the meeting was called to order by the Mayor and addressed by J. S. Smith, J. L. Parrish, Judge Boise and Benjamin Hayden, all expressing themselves in favor of maintaining the peace, law and order of our State to the exclusion of any revolutionary and insurrectionary movement which may take place in the Eastern States, and the discouragement of anything which may lead to civil war or strife in our midst, showing the advantages to be derived and the disadvantages, desolation and bloodshed inevitable from the pursuance of such a course. A committee was appointed of members of both party organizations to draft resolutions expressive of the sentiments of the people. The meeting adjourned to meet this evening.

OREGON CITY, Nov. 11, 8:45 P. M. — The Rival ran into the dam this evening, and knocked a hole into her. I think she will not be in Portland for some time. It is supposed they have sent to Milwaukie for the steamer Senator.

Letter from Roseburg.

ROSEBURG, November [illegible], 1864.

EDITOR OREGONIAN:

As this day closes my subscription for the OREGONIAN, I send you three dollars more, and I want you to send me the paper for another year. I have taken it ever since last March, and I feel that I cannot do without it, for I think it is the best paper that is printed in this State, and I want to take some good, reliable Union paper that is printed in this State, so that I can obtain the news regularly, and rely on it as the truth. This day decides the fate of this nation. If the Copperhead Mac is elected, we are gone up; but if old Uncle Abe is elected—and I think he will be—we are all right.

[We are very glad that just such men as the writer of the foregoing letter find the OREGONIAN acceptable, and endorse its course. We desire, and shall strive to deserve, the respect of all men and all parties, but are always pleased to be endorsed and supported by the true Union sentiment of the country.—ED.]

AN AMAZON DEFENDING THE FLAG. — The Tuolumne Courier (Sonora) of 29th of October says:

A secesh butcher of this city went over to Sawmill Flat a few days since, and was much offended at the sight of a small American flag which was flying there from the housetop of Mrs. A. [illegible]. Inquiring why the "Democrats" of the place allowed that [illegible] thing to flap about in defiance of Democratic principles, he volunteered to pull it down. He scrambled upon the house for the purpose of moving it, and the noise brought the lady to the door. Learning his purpose she re-entered the house, got a revolver, and bringing it to bear upon the representative of Jeff Davis and "True Democracy," she dared him to lay a finger on the flag. He looked at the banner, then at the lady, and finally rested his eyes on the revolver and fearfully squinted into the barrel of the persuader. There could be no mistake about it—the flashing eyes of the lady plainly said, "Take it down and die!" He weakened. The valiant hero organized himself into a frightened retreat, backed down from the roof of the cottage, jumped into his butcher cart, and "lit out" for Columbia, amid the jeers and laughings of a large crowd, the Copperheads yelling with the rest, and applauding the spirit of their brave townswoman with the utmost enthusiasm.

SLEEPING OUT OF DOORS. — A writer in Harper's Monthly remarks:

I thought I should never get to sleep. I had a bed of corn-stalks, but I believe I was [illegible]. It was the dreadful exposure to the night air that worried me, and [illegible] the proximity of hostile bullets and bayonets. And when I was aroused at [illegible] in the morning to continue the march, I was [illegible] more fearful of being broken down by [illegible] than of being shot [illegible]. How mistaken our notions were when they warned us against exposure to night air and sleeping in damp clothing [illegible]. [illegible]

Linn.

Mr. J. R. Elkins, County Clerk of Linn County, writes us that Linn went 85 majority for McClellan, which he accounts for by stating that [illegible] from other counties came there to vote.

Union and Baker Counties.

Mr. Hiram Colt, from Powder River Basin, Baker County, favored us with a call yesterday afternoon and gave it as his opinion that Baker county is good for from 50 to 100 majority for Lincoln, while Union county will not more than offset that. There was a general understanding that emigrants could not vote. Judging from the news received from Umatilla last evening, east of the mountain will not much change the result, and unless McClellan comes down the Columbia river with over 100 majority, the State is good for 1,700 or 1,800 majority for Lincoln.

POLK COUNTY. — Mr. Wise, of Polk County, arrived here last evening, and says that the Union men claim Polk by 225 majority. This is a gain of near 400 since June.

Bethel gave 62 Union to 10 Democratic, and Amity gave Lincoln 26 majority. These two places are certainly well named.

Mr. Hayden don't seem to have made much impression at home, at least in favor of the side he advocated. They should have imported a few more votes.

UMATILLA. — A friend writes us from Umatilla City that at the late election the City Charter was adopted and the Copperhead majority of June reduced by a present majority of 34 votes for Lincoln and Johnson. Good for Umatilla City!

JACKSONVILLE, Nov. 11. — Official vote of Jackson county is as follows: McClellan 563, Lincoln 467.

THE THUMBS GOING ABROAD. — By late advices from the East it appears that General Tom Thumb had taken staterooms for his family and suite on board the steamer City of Washington, for Liverpool. The General was announced to retire forever from public life at the close of his present engagement at the Museum. The Thumb family were to make the tour of Europe in their private capacity. They would stop a few weeks in Great Britain and France, and spend the winter in Florence and Rome. Commodore Nutt and Minnie Warren would continue to give their public exhibitions in this country.

DR. WM. HALL'S

BALSAM

OF THE

LUNGS

CINCINNATI, Jan. 8, 186[illegible].

Scovill & Co. Gentlemen: I feel it a duty I owe to the [illegible] to let them know the value of your Dr. William Hall's Balsam, for one day of Croup. My little girl, seven years old, had an attack of Croup, and came very near dying. I gave her Dr. Wm. Hall's Balsam, as directed, which gave relief in a very short time. We have used in cases of bad cough, with the happiest effect. Benjamin Pilkins, Eighth street, between Main and Sycamore streets. For sale by its agents everywhere. REDINGTON & CO., General Agents for the Pacific Coast, 416 and 418 Front street, San Francisco.

☞ Beware of all other preparations of the same name. Each bottle of the genuine bears the signature of "J. [illegible] Baker & Co.," Cincinnati. Take none other. Price One Dollar per bottle.

AS A SPRING REMEDY, to purify and cleanse the Blood, leaving it free from all humors and impurities, we assert with confidence that there is no better remedy than SCOVILL'S BLOOD AND LIVER SYRUP. (Cut this out.)

BOILS.

WE READ THAT ONE OF the sorest afflictions that the patient Job was called upon to bear was that of boils, and they have been found to be, from that time to the present, the most troublesome and painful of visitors. We have known instances where individuals were sure to have these eruptions break out upon them once a month at least. They show an impure state of the blood, and that humor of some kind is lurking there, and the overplus of corruption is actually forced to the surface of the body, making its appearance in the form of Boils. Now, is it not best at once to purify the system? Do you ask what will do this? We answer, Scovill's Blood and Liver Syrup. It is curing humors in every form, and there is not a State in the Union where it has not accomplished the most astonishing cures.

Fierce Fellow.—Thursday evening the usual quiet of the Columbian was disturbed by a [illegible] who seemed to be "spoiling for a fight." It was about 11 o'clock at night, and a conversation was progressing quietly enough between a bull terrier Irishman and another person, when the bull terrier commenced active demonstrations, and looked hostile to an out-sider [illegible] or two, and kicking and striking at this [illegible]—for he did not pretend to be an antagonist—in a terrible manner. The fellow [illegible] on the floor, before outsiders could interfere, but Mr. [illegible] finally got his grip on the bull terrier, [illegible] him on to the floor, and applying the [illegible] boot in the most approved manner to the appropriate place, pushed him from the premises. Late in the evening the tarrier was [illegible] out of a Saloon near by. He is said to have been a waiter in the What Cheer House, and should have had a taste of justice before the Recorder's court, as he really merited.

East Lynne.—This play was produced at the Willamette Theatre last evening with great success. We did not witness the performance, but stepping in for a moment at half past nine, just as the curtain dropped on the last act, we heard none but favorable comments. All were delighted and satisfied, and spoke in the highest terms of the play and the players. What we did see and hear during the moment we were there, was a crowd of gentlemen and ladies, literally amounting to a jam in the dress circle and a full house below, and Mrs. Getzler (Sue Robinson) sang with touching pathos: "Just before the battle mother," which was received with delight and encored, [illegible] then gave a humorous song that created a great rumpus below, and many a smile (and [illegible] too) in the dress circle. The respectable character of the management and talent of the company is being appreciated as it deserves. The season commenced with the determination to succeed independent of cliques, and [illegible], and is winning on the strength of merit.

Closed for the Season.—The McClellan Club Room, we hear was closed at 4 o'clock, P. M. yesterday.

It is supposed that the McClellan Artillery made its positively last appearance a few evenings since, when the windows on Front Street were demolished by its discharge. Sic transit [illegible] Tuesday.

Mr. Potter might employ some of the McClellan troupe, if they can really perform as well as the showman advertises, but the folks doubt much if they can perform well since their star actor is [illegible] out. At any rate they never did draw enough to pay, though, if their lazy phizzes were [illegible] this evening, would not their be caricatures [illegible], that would pay. In the words of the [illegible] we have

"Linked faces long drawn out."

May be we don't quote it right, may be we have forgot, sounds like it though.

Tobacco and Segars.—Mr. A. G. Stewart (our friend Abe) has been appointed Inspector of Tobacco and Segars for the collection district of Oregon, by Mr. Fessenden, Secretary of the Treasury of the United States. A good appointment. We would not mind inspecting a few of those segars ourselves, and whenever business drives A. G. he is welcome to call on us, especially just after dinner. At the same time we want it understood distinctly, that we don't calculate that many of our segars will be inspected—that part of the business will be all smoke to Mr. Inspector.

N. B. Since we give him a puff we shall expect many a puff and whiff in return.

How the News was Received.—Yesterday when the world understood that the eastern line was in working order again, and that somebody was elected President, and the forthcoming of an extra was announced, the waiting crowd gathered [illegible] the street, and almost filled the sidewalks. Several hundred extras were soon disposed of, and as a consequence, while a few faces grew long, the majority shone with hearty good humor. Uncle Abraham is certainly a favorite with our [illegible].

The Man.—Our friend Arrigoni said before the election, that if Lincoln's election should prove to the best interests of the nation, he would be satisfied with it.

We only ask a decided trial for Uncle Abraham, and we expect more men, than our popular neighbor—who seems to be one of the few men who can "keep a hotel"—will be satisfied that Lincoln is the man for the times.

Sale of Real Estate.—The important sale of real estate to be sold this morning by A. B. Richardson, is deserving of the especial attention of parties desiring to purchase homesteads. Without doubt this sale of real estate is the most important that has ever been advertised in this city. The title to all the property that will be offered is perfect, purchasers will have the privilege of paying in legal tender notes. Everybody attend and secure a homestead.

Guns for the Union.—While we write a hundred guns are being fired on the plaza and a hundred at the foot of Pine street.

The guns were manned by the Washington Artillery, Capt. Joyce, and every gun has a response in the hearts of Union men.

Lincoln and Johnson are now in every mouth and their election assured, Union men walk the streets with lighter steps and lighter hearts.

Salmon.—The Rescue the other evening brought from Monticello a lot of salmon trout, that afforded a variety to our hotel tables. Quite an agreeable one too, for beef, mutton and pork, were decidedly thrown into the shade in the breakfast arrangements.

If Washington Territory will continue to furnish such additions to our market supplies they will be very acceptable, to say the least of it.

The U. S. Mint Question.—There are hundreds of strangers from the mines now in town, and we frequently meet persons from Eastern Oregon and Washington and Idaho Territories, and the universal sentiment concerning the mint, seems to be that Portland is the most acceptable place for its location, and the best suited to the wants of the mining region east of us.

Fixing the Streets.—They really are fixing the streets near the Columbian, and there is a promise out that they shall be made passable. There are some really bad spots in Front street, that need improvement, though it is not probable such will be attempted until another season.

A Foot Race.—This afternoon at 2 o'clock, rain or no mud, rain or shine (we suppose) there will be a foot race on the east side of the river, between M. J. Lewis and Joseph Buchtel, to run [illegible] yards. Lewis gives Buchtel 10 feet at the outcome.

Taxes.—Tax payers of school district No. 1, Multnomah county, are called on by an advertisement in to-day's issue to pay up before Dec. 15. Look to it!

Sanitary Cause.—Dr. Bowlby will deliver a lecture in aid of the Sanitary cause at Ames' Chapel at Forest Grove in Washington county, on the evening of Nov. 19th.

Multnomah county cast 1995 votes for presidential electors last Tuesday.

Pennsylvania.—The telegraph to-day says that the official canvass in 44 counties give the following figures as the result of the late election in Pennsylvania, including the soldiers' vote: Union, 190,787; Democratic, 176,698. This leaves a Union majority of 14,089, with a dozen or more counties to hear from. Where now are Bella-[illegible] and Marble, of private telegram celebrity?—Bul.

Hebrew Benevolent Society.—Appointed meeting at the Turn Verein Hall on Sunday, the 30th inst., at 2½ o'clock P. M. A full attendance is requested.

HOSTETTER'S

CELEBRATED

STOMACH BITTERS.

THE OPERATION OF THIS PALATABLE REMEDY upon the stomach, liver and excretory organs is singularly soothing and conservative. It regulates, recruits and purifies them. Dyspepsia in all its forms yields to its cordial and invigorating properties.

Invigorate the System.

Vigorous digestion and pure bile produce nutritious blood, and nutritious blood a healthy frame. Does the victim of a dyspeptic stomach and a disordered liver desire to know how the digestion may be improved, the bile and other fluids of the body purified?

Dr. Hostetter's Stomach Bitters

Will accomplish this desirable revolution in the system, regulating the secretions and excretions, giving tone to the animal juices which dissolve the food, strengthening every relaxed nerve, muscle and fibre, and bringing the whole machinery of vitality into vigorous and healthful play.

Strengthen the System.

The best means of imparting vigor to the broken down frame and shattered constitution, which has yet been invented or discovered, is offered in the Bitters of both sexes and all ages.

Dr. Hostetter's Stomach Bitters.

Debility, from whatever cause arising, may be cured; strength, in whatever manner it may have been wasted, may be restored by the use of this powerful and healthy invigorant. For indigestion and all its painful effects, bodily and mental, they are a positive specific.

A Word to the Aged!

In the decline of life, the loss of vital force consequent upon physical decay can only be safely supplied by some vivifying preparation which recruits the strength and spirits, without entailing the exhaustion which is always the final effect of ordinary stimulants. We tender to the aged

Dr. Hostetter's Stomach Bitters.

As an invigorant and restorative, immediate in its beneficial action and permanent in its effects. It tones the stomach, improves the appetite, and acts like a charm upon the spirits.

For Females:

The females of both resort to it as a remedy for hysteria, fluttering of the heart, nervous headache, and for general debility, and all periodical disturbances and derangements to which the sex, they are [illegible]. My Dear [illegible]

[illegible] they [illegible] on [illegible] the Weldon road [illegible] can't get along without it.

[illegible] just now, [illegible] army [illegible] capture [illegible] third-rate [illegible]

I [illegible] the [illegible] struggle for it. [illegible] gladden hearts innumerable.

Lee is a pretty good General, [illegible] and he fully appreciates the value of the road above mentioned; so he is scraping together an army with which to attack our [illegible] line. All the guerrillas of the W[illegible] called in, and at other available points elsewhere, including H[illegible]'s army which recently [illegible] Atlanta.

There is a [illegible] wild [illegible] during the [illegible] that Grant's pretty near played out, and hasn't half enough men.

If they want to know just how many we have, let them attack us on the Weldon road. They will find out.

And I shall be there!

I notice that the Southern papers are not so chipper about the Confederate prospects as they were before supplies were so cut down.

But you can't expect a man to write cheerfully on corn meal and rusty bacon. Flour sells at $650 a barrel in Richmond, and I don't believe the newspaper men get much of it at that price.

If a fellow has enough to keep his family alive a week, they consider him able to stock a wholesale provision store. A pork-and-beans dinner costs twenty or thirty dollars at a hotel. It is said that the banquet given to Gilmore and Jacques by President Davis cost that respected rebel nearly the whole of his large private fortune.

But then, they revelled in cider and stewed tomatoes.

I have heard of several cases in which high born and aristocratic daughters of the F. F. V's have married private soldiers in our army in order to get something to eat.

An incident of some interest occurred to me the other day, which bears upon this phase of Southern independence.

As I was sitting in my tent, resting side-arms and practicing the opera of "Semiramide" on the sweet-toned bamboja[illegible], the damask curtains were swept aside and a lovely being entered.

"Great warrior," she murmured, "I salute you."

"How are you, Miss?" said I.

"My name," she said, "is Pochahontas Roanoka Pendleton Key [illegible] Randolph, and I want some cold victuals."

"Thou shalt have them, dark-eyed daughter of the Southern clime," said I.

"I am not a darkeyed daughter," she replied; "I am pure white."

She brushed away a tear that glittered in her southwest eye, and wiped her nose on the corner of her gunny-bag shawl.

My heart was touched. I set before her a dainty collation of boiled rice, fried bacon, bean soup and hard tack; a soldier's fare.

She ate as if she hadn't had a full meal since she was weaned.

When she had done, I asked:

"Is there no other delicacy I can offer to tempt thy palate, O, maiden of the lustrous orbs?"

"Could you afford to me an undersized snifter of old rye?" she inquired, while the rose bloom of maiden modesty suffused her left hand cheek.

With the beautiful sense of politeness for which I am distinguished, I set out my demijohn and a big tin cup and left the tent for half an hour.

She remained, and the demijohn didn't feel lonesome.

When I returned, she said she felt better. It was from her that I learned the facts I have given concerning the poverty of the rebels. She said that the aristocracy suffered awfully, and that the only people she knew of who had a decent living, were the working people.

"Why don't you work, then?" said I.

"Sir," she answered, proudly, "I'm a true-born Southron!"

I've seen a good many true-born Southrons who had rather beg victuals than work for a living; and a good many more who had rather steal than beg.

It's a little peculiarity that they have inherited from their old folks, the Cavaliers. Those cavaliers were good enough fellows, but every one of them was a horse-thief on his father's side.

"Why should I soil my palms with labor?" continued my fair guest. "I was nurtured in luxury and descended from a lofty race."

"So did I, once," said I, "from a balloon race; and my fall was about as great as yours has been. Young woman," I added with severity, "go home. [illegible] peanuts and eat them in honest fatigue. They will be sweeter than all the [illegible] sops of hospitality. If you fail to support your life by industry, after a long and earnest trial, then you can come to my arms."

"I won't come to your arms!" said she, with emotion; "you're a Yankee! [illegible] Death before dishonor!"

She seized a bread knife and brandished it. I thought my last moment had come, and breathed a prayer for the loved ones at home and elsewhere.

Fortunately, a sixty-eight pound shell exploded in the tent at that instant (my quarters are well to the front), and I saw no more of her.

Those are every day incidents of an army correspondent's life.

But I must bid you farewell for this week. I have a lame back that prevents my writing much, got by a little accident the other day.

I was going the rounds of my [illegible] on horseback, when a rebel artilleryman sighted and fired a fifteen-inch solid wrought iron slug at me.

It struck me in the back. I was greatly annoyed.

Proclamation

STATE OF OREGON, EXECUTIVE DEPARTMENT, Oct. 24th, 1864.

Whereas, [illegible]

Now, therefore, I, ADDISON C. GIBBS, [illegible] call upon the citizens of this State to [illegible]

In witness whereof I have hereunto set my hand and caused the great seal of the State of Oregon to be affixed. Done at Salem this 24th day of October, A. D. 1864.

ADDISON C. GIBBS,
Governor of Oregon.

Attest: SAMUEL E. MAY, Secretary of State.

The following is hereby promulgated. The [illegible] will be as follows until further notice:

REGIMENT.

The regiment will be known as the First Infantry, Oregon Volunteers. The field, staff and line officers will be commissioned by the Governor. The State will be divided into districts according to the number of persons in each district liable to military duty. When such district has furnished its quota, there will be no draft in the same under this call. Each district will furnish one company.

Commissions will be issued to recruiting officers, [illegible] be mustered into the service, [illegible] to be named.

[illegible] that some competent [illegible] district, [illegible] all recruits [illegible]

The State has provided by law for the payment of a bounty of $150 in State interest-bearing bonds, payable in gold, to all volunteers [illegible] the service, [illegible] to be paid by the United States. (See statutes 1864, page 18.)

The wages of a soldier, in addition, are $16 per month, besides clothing, equipments, rations and allowances, furnished by the United States. (See statutes 1864, page 60.)

ORGANIZATION.

The proper organization and strength of a regiment of infantry is as follows:

One (1) colonel, one (1) lieutenant colonel, one (1) major, one (1) adjutant (an extra lieutenant), one (1) quartermaster (an extra lieutenant), one (1) surgeon, two (2) assistant surgeons, one (1) chaplain, one (1) sergeant major, one (1) regimental quartermaster sergeant, one (1) regimental commissary sergeant and one (1) hospital steward. Ten companies form a regiment.

COMPANY OF INFANTRY.

One (1) captain, one (1) 1st lieutenant, one (1) 2d lieutenant, one (1) 1st sergeant, four (4) sergeants, eight (8) corporals, two (2) musicians, one (1) wagoner, sixty-four (64) privates minimum, and eighty-two (82) privates maximum, besides the non-commissioned officers.

Musicians may be enlisted in [illegible] company, who will be [illegible] and paid as privates.

The following is the estimated

QUOTA OF MEN [illegible] FROM EACH COUNTY:

Jackson	55
Josephine	20
Curry	5
Douglas	50
Coos	12
Lane	14
Linn	100
Benton	41
Polk	40
Marion	98
Clackamas	40
Yamhill	46
Tillamook	3
Multnomah	122
Washington	41
Columbia	7
Clatsop	11
Wasco and Grant	120
Umatilla	25
Baker and Union	58

To the County Officers:

Other States have filled with commendable promptitude every call that has been made upon them. The people have a very natural repugnance to a draft, under which every drafted man must serve or furnish a substitute. Under it there must inevitably be some cases of severe but necessary hardship. Opportunity is now given to avoid such a draft. The men are needed promptly, and every consideration of patriotism and of State loyal and personal pride requires that you commence promptly and prosecute vigorously the business of obtaining volunteers. The officers of the State feeling the most earnest desire that the entire State should avoid a draft, appeals to the patriotic citizens of your county, through you who are their official and legal and natural representatives. As guardians of their rights and of their honor, it is incumbent upon you to respond to this appeal by earnest and successful work. Call to your aid the assistance of the active and influential citizens of the county. Let every loyal citizen of the county understand, and, if possible, induce him to realize that he has an immediate and personal interest in the success of your efforts. If necessary, call meetings in your school districts and bring the matter home to every inhabitant. Funds will be needed to pay expenses not provided for by law. Let subscriptions be circulated in each county for that purpose, & preserve a record of the names of the donors among the archives of the county. In short, the Governor, upon whom the requisition is made, expects and justly, that you will respond to this call upon you with an earnestness of purpose which shall insure success. Due notice of the districting of the State will be given as soon as it can be made.

[illegible] Sept. 10, 1863.

I have been in the army hospitals for [illegible] months—speechless and nearly dead. At Alton, Ill. they gave me a bottle of Plantation Bitters. [illegible] bottles restored my speech and cured me. [illegible]

[illegible], O., July 26, 1863.

[illegible] one young man who had been sick and unable to [illegible] for two years with scrofula and erysipelas, after paying the doctors over $150 without benefit, was cured by [illegible] bottles of your Bitters.

EDWARD WOONALL.

The following is from the manager of the Union Home School for the Children of Volunteers:

HAVEMEYER MANSION, FIFTY-SEVENTH ST.,
New York, August 1, 1863.

DR. DRAKE: Your wonderful Plantation Bitters have been given to some of our little children suffering from weakness and weak lungs, with most happy effect. One little girl, in particular, with pains in her head, loss of appetite, and daily wasting consumption, on whom all medical skill had been exhausted, has been entirely restored. We commenced with but a teaspoonful of Bitters a day. Her appetite and strength rapidly increased, and she is now well.

Respectfully,
MRS. O. M. DEVOE.

[illegible] I owe much to you, for I verily believe the Plantation Bitters have saved my life.

REV. W. H. WAGGONER, Madrid, N. Y.

[illegible] Thou wilt send me two bottles more of thy Plantation Bitters. My wife has been greatly benefitted by their use. Thy friend,

ASA CURRIN, Philadelphia, Pa.

[illegible] I have been a great sufferer from dyspepsia, and had to abandon preaching. [illegible] The Plantation Bitters have cured me.

REV. J. S. CATHORN, Rochester, N. Y.

[illegible] Send us twenty-four dozen more of your Plantation Bitters, the popularity of which is daily increasing with the guests of our house.

SYKES, CHADWICK & CO.,
Proprietors Willard's Hotel, Washington, D. C.

[illegible] I have given the Plantation Bitters to hundreds of our disabled soldiers with the most astonishing effect.

G. W. ANDREWS,
Superintendent Soldiers' Home, Cincinnati, O.

[illegible] The Plantation Bitters have cured me of liver complaint, of which I was laid up prostrate and had to abandon my business.

H. B. KINGSLEY, Cleveland, O.

[illegible] The Plantation Bitters have cured me of a derangement of the kidneys and urinary organs that has distressed me for years. It acts like a charm.

C. C. MOORE, 254 Broadway, N. Y.

etc. etc. etc.

The Plantation Bitters make the weak strong, the languid brilliant, and are exhausted nature's great restorer. They are composed of the celebrated Calisaya bark, Wintergreen, Sassafras, Roots, Herbs, &c., all preserved in perfectly pure St. Croix Rum.

S. T.—1860.—X.

Persons of sedentary habits troubled with weakness, lassitude, palpitation of the heart, lack of appetite, distress after eating, torpid liver, constipation, &c., deserve to suffer if they will not try them.

They are recommended by the highest medical authorities, and are warranted to produce an immediate beneficial effect. They are exceedingly agreeable, perfectly pure and harmless.

NOTICE.—Any person pretending to sell Plantation Bitters in bulk or by the gallon, is a swindler and impostor. It is put up only in our patent log cabin bottle. Beware of bottles refilled with imitation deleterious stuff, for which several persons are already in prison. See that every bottle has our private United States Stamp over the cork unmutilated, and signature on steel plate side label.

Sold by respectable dealers throughout the habitable globe.

"CONSTITUTION WATER"

THE ONLY REMEDY FOR DISEASES OF THE

BLADDER, KIDNEYS,

Gravel, Dropsical Swellings,

GENITAL DEBILITY, ETC.

THE ASTONISHING SUCCESS WHICH HAS ATTENDED this invaluable medicine renders it the most valuable one ever discovered. No language can convey an adequate idea of the immediate and almost miraculous change which it occasions in the debilitated and shattered system. In fact, it stands unrivalled as a remedy for the permanent cure of the maladies above mentioned, and also—

DIABETES, IMPOTENCY,
LOSS OF MUSCULAR ENERGY,
PHYSICAL PROSTRATION,
INDIGESTION,
SEMINAL WEAKNESS,
GLEET, FLUOR ALBUS,

And in every disease any way connected with the disorder or decay of the PROCREATIVE FUNCTIONS. Persons about to marry, if conscious of any weakness, should take the

CONSTITUTION WATER,

Whether broken down by excess, weak by nature or impaired by sickness, the unstrung and relaxed organization is at once reformed, revivified and built up. Well may this celebrated medicine be called the

MEDICAL WONDER.

The stooping, trembling victim of depression and debility becomes a new man; he stands erect, he moves with a firm step; his mind, which was previously sunk in gloom of an almost idiotic apathy, becomes bright and active; and he goes forth regenerated, conscious of new vigor.—The medicine reaches the CONSTITUTION itself, and restores it to its normal condition.

IRRITATION OF THE NECK OF THE BLADDER, INFLAMMATION OF THE KIDNEYS, AND CATARRH OF THE BLADDER,
STRANGUARY AND BURNING, OR PAINFUL
URINATING,
CALCULUS, GRAVEL,
BRICK DUST DEPOSIT, AND MUCOUS,
OR MILKY DISCHARGES AFTER URINATING.

For these diseases it is truly a sovereign remedy, and too much cannot be said in its praise. A single dose has been known to relieve the most urgent symptoms. TRY IT in these cases, and you will ever give praise to

CONSTITUTION WATER.

Males or Females,

Are you troubled with that distressing pain in the small of the back, and through your hips? CONSTITUTION WATER will relieve you like magic.

It is well known that the Medicinal effects of Protoxide of Iron is lost by even a very brief exposure to air, and that to maintain a solution of Protoxide of Iron without further oxidation has been deemed impossible.

In the Peruvian Syrup this desirable point is attained by combination in a way before unknown; and this solution may replace all the proto-carbonates, citrates and tartrates of the Materia Medica.

IODINE WATER.

IODINE WATER IS THE MOST IMPORTANT DIScovery of modern chemistry, and it is supposed to be [illegible] estimate its influence as a remedial agent. Iodine has been considered the most useful article in Materia Medica, and many of the most scientific and practical chemists and physicians have investigated its effects upon the human system. [illegible] upon the

HEART,
LIVER, KIDNEYS,
DIGESTIVE ORGANS and GLANDULAR SYSTEM,

and to have great control over

SCROFULOUS AFFECTIONS.

Notwithstanding the zeal and ability which have been devoted to its investigation it remained almost useless, until Dr. Henry Anders, a physician and chemist of New York, after years of patient labor and experiment, discovered a chemical process by which he was able to dissolve without a solvent. This, considered impossible by the scientific world, is attested by certificates of analysis from Dr. N. R. Chilton of this city, and Prof. Booth, U. S. Mint, Philadelphia. The importance of this discovery was so highly appreciated by the Faculty that it was published in the Medical Journals and its use recommended to practitioners (see "American Medical Monthly," July 6, 1856, page 56.)

PURE IODINE IN PURE WATER,

This valuable medicine is now available to the public for the cure of Scrofula in all its manifold forms, Consumption, Cancer, Heart, Liver and Kidney Diseases, Rheumatism, Neuralgia, Nervous Affections, Dyspepsia, Bronchitis, etc.

AS A TONIC

Its operation is evinced by strengthening the digestive organs and increased nutrition of the body is the result of the employment of Iodine. The patient recovers flesh, strength and color; [illegible] relaxed and feeble, he becomes full, strong and florid.

ALLEN'S LUNG BALSAM!

The Remedy for Curing

CONSUMPTION, COUGHS, COLDS,

Asthma, Croup,

Diseases of the Throat, Bronchitis, Pains and Oppression of the Chest and Lungs, Difficult Breathing and all the Diseases of the Pulmonary Organs.

ITS ACTION IS EXPECTORANT, ALTERATIVE, SUDORIFIC, SEDATIVE, DIAPHORETIC AND DIURETIC, which renders it one of the most valuable remedies known for curing diseases of the lungs. It excites expectoration, and causes the lungs to throw off the phlegm or mucus; CHANGES THE SECRETIONS AND PURIFIES THE BLOOD; heals the irritated parts; gives strength to the digestive organs; brings the liver to its proper action, and imparts strength to the whole system. Such is the immediate and satisfactory effect, that it is WARRANTED TO BREAK UP THE MOST DISTRESSING COUGH IN A FEW HOURS' TIME, if not of too long standing. IT IS WARRANTED to give entire satisfaction even in the MOST CONFIRMED CASES OF CONSUMPTION. IT IS WARRANTED NOT to produce costiveness (which is the case with most remedies), or affect the head, as it contains no Opium in any form. IT IS WARRANTED TO BE PERFECTLY HARMLESS to the most delicate child, although it is an active and powerful remedy for restoring the system. THERE IS NO REAL NECESSITY FOR SO MANY DEATHS BY CONSUMPTION, when ALLEN'S LUNG BALSAM will prevent it, if only taken in time.
